From the East

Brothers,

May was busy month. We started with our Election of Officers for the upcoming year, which went off without a hitch. Congratulations to our newly elected officers.

Our Presentation of the Hiramic Drama was OUTSTANDING and Special thanks to R.:W.: Frank Borello III and his ritual team are in order. Although a little biased, I am pleased to say that these men are setting the standard for the District.

Unfortunately, Bro. Joe Loos lost a long-term battle with cancer and was called home by the GAOTU. He will be missed. Please keep his family in your thoughts while they go through a very trying time.

We end the year with a couple of fun nights. Our first meeting is open to friends and family for the Installation of Officers – always a fun night.

We close the year with our Annual End of Year BBQ and Brother Bring a Friend Night. Don't forget to wear your goofiest T-Shirts!

I'm looking forward to seeing all of you!

Fraternally,

R.:W.: Thomas Basich, PDDGM
Secretary

Sad Tidings

The Great Architect of the Universe called Bro. Joseph Loos to that “House not Made with Hands, Eternal in the Heavens” to be by his side. Alas Brother.

Sickness & Distress

R.:W.: William Welsh has had to undergo surgery and is going through a long recovery. Godspeed Brother!

W.: Michael D’Avanzo has started a new round of treatments. Let’s pray for a successful round. Godspeed Brother!

Good Cheer

It is that special time of year when we get to see our children graduate. Some go on to college, some join the military and workforce. Yet others advance from elementary and middle school.

Congratulations to all of you and may your families enjoy every success that comes from each of these milestones.

Congratulations to our incoming officers! May each of you enjoy a successful and productive year!
