From the East

Brothers,

I hope your summer was a good one, and that you are well-rested and ready for an outstanding Masonic year. We have a lot of work to do. Overall, attendance was down last year as we slowly recovered from the fog of a 2-year pandemic, the loss of our WM and Secretary.

Despite these challenges we still brought 6 Brothers to Light as Master Masons, each of them participating in our recovery. We have also brought our ritual up several notches thanks to the leadership of R.:W.: Frank Borello III and the continued efforts of his ritual team... well done my Brothers.

I'm looking forward to seeing all of you at our Welcome Back BBQ.

Please keep in mind that Masonic Casual does not mean you show up looking like you are homeless (unless you are, in that case we are willing to help).

Our second meeting is The School of Instruction. Let's make sure we have a decent turnout. These meetings are designed to advance your journey in Masonry.

Remember, you get out of Masonry what you put into Masonry.

See you soon.

Fraternally,

R.:W.: Michael DeLuca, PDDGM
Master
