From the East

Brothers.

January was a great month; we initiated 2 new candidates to our lodge! With the hard work of our ritual team, we passed them to the degree of Entered Apprentice. Thank you for all of your hard work & thank you for filling the lodge when they were brought to light. Our Rangers game was a fun night out! We had to wait until the end to see a goal, but they finally pulled it off in a Shootout & won the nail bitter of a game. At the end of Jan, we had our brotherhood dinner, raising money for Masons in need here on Staten Island. We had a great showing from Great Kills & the district. It was a fun evening of brotherhood, food, freshly rolled cigars & fellowship. I encourage any brother who hasn't been to make every effort next year.

February looks like it'll be another busy month. Our first meeting will be a Valentine's Day Potluck. Please bring down your wife/girlfriend & families for a fun night of food & fellowship. Don't be shy if you like to dance ; } We have 5 people so far that have volunteered to cook. If you're interested please reach out to me or our JW Kenny Myers. Our second meeting will be a historical Masonic music lecture by Bro John Dianora. After the meeting we will have a practice for the second degree.

Around the district we have a lot of 2nd & 3rd degrees going on. Please try & show our lodges your support & attend the degrees if your cable tow permits. I know they would love to have a packed room for their candidates & they did a good job of supporting our 1st degree. We have 2 DD visits, Feb 17th at LaGuardia Lodge & Mar 1st at Widow Son's. Please support our DD R.:W.: Christopher "R" Deats. He's doing an amazing job supporting us all even while living two states away.

Fraternally,

W.: Scott Peretti

Master
