From the East

Brothers.

Our first meeting of the month was our District Deputy Visit. Thank you all for filling the room to support R.:W.: Christopher “R” Deats.

We raised over $200 for the Grand Master’s Toys for Tots initiative, just by passing around the hat, further affirming that we at Great Kills do not merely speak of charity. We live it.

We were also named a Lodge of excellence, the first one in our district!

Our Second meeting in October was very productive. Not only did we ballot on 4 new applicants to our lodge, we also had a very productive open discussion and vote on the budget proposed by the Audit and Finance committee. I want to give a huge thanks to the Trustees, Brothers on the Audit and Finance committee, as well as all the Brothers that attended the meeting. Our next big project to tackle is the updating of the bylaws. If you are interested in being a member of the Bylaw Committee please reach out to me.

Our only meeting this month is our EA degree. Our ritual team has been working all summer to deliver a degree that we hope will be awe inspiring for the gentlemen that will soon become our Brothers. Let's pack the room to show these men what the Masonic Light of Brotherhood looks like.

Please purchase your tickets to the Great Kills Ladies Night Holiday Party. It is going to be a wonderful evening full of holiday cheer.

Fraternally,

W.: Roderick Rooks
Master

Sickness & Distress
