From the East

Brothers.

November was a busy month.

We had our Interfaith Service & delicious breakfast cooked by the Sidonians, an amazing evening at the RMA Charity Ball, and most importantly we put on an awesome 1st Degree!

Thank you to the entire ritual team for giving our newly raised brothers a powerful experience they will remember for the rest of their lives.

Last & certainly not least, the RMA Food Drive. We had a lot of brothers from our lodge & the district doing what we do best, being pillars of our community. We were out in the community getting people to donate food & money so we could fill a couple of local food banks. You all make me proud to be a Mason in the Richmond district!

Our only meeting of the month will be our Longevity Night. This is always a great meeting and this year we even have a couple new Lodge Awards that will be given out. We will also be remembering the Brothers that we have lost in 2025.

On Saturday the 13th, we have our Annual Lady's Night & Holiday Party. Please make sure to get your reservations in soon, as we need to give a final head count. This year's Holiday Party is one that you will not want to miss!

Fraternally,

W.: Roderick Rooks
Master

Sickness & Distress

Bro. Thomas Cacase's Mother is battling cancer.
Please keep Tommy and his family in your prayers.
