From the East

Brothers.

March was a big month for us and showed the many facets of Great Kills Lodge. Our first meeting was held at Great Kills Moravian Church where we handled a lot of important business such as reading and discussing our proposed bylaw amendments. Special thanks to our SD Bro. Cacase for stepping and handling food for that evening.

We then had our very special historic 3rd Degree at the Courthouse in Historic Richmond Town. It would take years of writing for me to conceive how much love and appreciation I have for all you Brothers that helped make that degree nothing short of magical. I felt so blessed to have the best seat in the house during the most impressive degree I have ever witnessed. To our newly raised Brothers, congratulations. I am excited to see you as you grow in Masonry.

Our second meeting was held at Joyce's tavern where we ate, drank, laughed, and heard the reading of an essay written by Bro. Dan Maisonet that perfectly captured the spirit of the night of our 3rd degree at Historic Richmond Town. We are very fortunate to have such a gifted writer in our midst. \(Please see attached Doc\)

April is going to be an exciting month. Bother meetings will be held at Great Kills Moravian Church. Our First meeting will be heading into the final phase of our Quest to update our bylaws. After that Bro. John Dianora will be giving a short talk on Music in Masonry. If you attended the talk he gave last year you already know he has a way of giving a lecture that is informative and entertaining!

Our second meeting in April is a BIG one. It's table lodge time. This year we get to see who hypes up the boys more our 2-time veteran of the games S.W. Bro. Kenny or our first timer J.W. Bro. Lonnie. Come on out for what is always a great night!

April 15th is DDGM CHRISTOPHER R. DEATS HOME COMING!!

Bro. Nick Agostino had a baby Boy!

Fraternally,

W.: Roderick Rooks ~ Master
